Createspace. Paperback. Book Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. Paperback. 316 pages. Lost, Then Found is a classic tale of good versus evil, angels versus demons, and children versus the devil. Yes, you read it correctly. Children take on Lucifer himself in this Christian speculative fiction. The heroes are four teenagers recruited to serve Jesus as elite warriors. The main hero, Jeffery Bartlett, is a very angry thirteen year old boy who lost his brother, Jeb, two years prior to the story's beginning. The journey begins as Jeffery and his best friend, Joey, are snatched from their favorite woods to a distant place. They are recruited to serve Jesus as elite warriors. With adventure burning in their young veins, they accept and the adventures begin. Ah, but to the all-seeing eyes of the reader, something is lurking just in the shadows. There is a story behind the story. They meet fraternal twins at the orbiting angel-managed special service training academy. Quickly lasting friendships begin to grow, and none too soon. The four undergo several quests that take them to the volcanic caverns deep beneath Iceland, to the Sundae Strait in Indonesia, to the mysterious mountains of...
