Excerpt: . . . growing unity in organic life; while the scriptures are being planted on former foundations as the very inspired revelation of God, there is revision of creeds, bringing the church's statement of doctrinal beliefs into accord with her best spirit and life of missionaries have been sent into the pagan world, and tens of millions of dollars have been voluntarily contributed for this work, and numbers and amounts are greater this year than ever. The future means increase. Applied Christianity is what the world waits for, and the century before us will feel its increased spiritual power. We fear naught. A spreading Christianity with its multiplied moral and philanthropic agencies, will make all mankind sharers with us of the blessings of the Divine Father, through Jesus Christ our Redeemer. Temporary reactions will not stop the mighty current. Progress, materially, socially, morally, religiously, will be vastly accelerated. Opulent cities will fill our land; agriculture will cover our continent, and with us countries now barbarous will resound with all the industry of enriching work, while school house and church these hopes of freemen, will fill all lands. The Lord our God shall be with us, and all nations shall be blessed in him; blessed be His glorious name forever, --the whole earth shall be filled with His glory. FIFTY-SIX years ago one of Ohio's most distinguished sons, Hon. Thomas I Ewing, being invited by a committee of the native citizens of Hamilton to attend a celebration of...
