For this we have no other instrument than our reason, for the weakness of which we are not responsible, for its faithful use we are. I express myself with caution, says Bishop Butler, lest I should be mistaken to vilify reason, which is indeed the only faculty we have to judge concerning anything, even Revelation itself, or be misunderstood to assert that a supposed Revelation cannot be proved false from internal characters. Noble words those for a Prelate of the State Church. Whether a Revelation is authentic, whether a miracle is real, reason must be judge. If calmly, carefully, and conscientious applied, it still misleads us, on its Giver the responsibility rests. Our only path of salvation is thorough-going loyalty to truth.
