Reviews

This type of publication is every thing and helped me seeking ahead and much more. It usually fails to charge too much. It is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding, once you begin to read the book.

There was provision made in the charter for the support of the Oospel. and two grants of land were devoted to this purpose, the income of which is annually divided among the different Societies, according to membership. Previous to any church organization, there were occasional services held in town by clergymen of different denominations, but at so late a date, it is difficult getting at either dates or name, with any degree of certainty. Rev. Mr. Nichols sent out by the Society for the promotion of Christian Knowledge, from Montreal, is either the first, or one of the first, who conducted religious services in town. Rev. Mr. Stuart preaches in town about 1807. He afterward became Bishop of the Diocese of Quebec. Oilier will be noticed in connection with this history. The church is the largest in town, and is considered one of the best of the Vermont societies, so distinct in its plan as to require a separate history. The church is situated on the west side of Franklin pond. Irving is the first put out of the year 1799, Lorenzo is the first sent by the New York Conference, to preach in the North and Vermont and Canada, and he preached several times in the southern part of this town. The next year Russell Ligalow emigrated from New York and was the first resident Methodist in town. About this time, also, a Mr. Wallace, a schoolmaster from Sheldon, came to Franklin and held religious meetings...
