Moody Publishers, United States, 2016. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 239 x 178 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. If you've ever read the book of Acts, it probably didn't take you long to notice: The early believers were on fire! They were full of the Holy Spirit, had wonder for God, and did great things in His name. And sadly, many of us seem nothing like them. An Unexplainable Life is a call to reignite the mission and movement of the early church individually and collectively. This in-depth Bible study transports readers back to the early days of the Christian church, challenging our modern-day assumptions and inviting us to join Jesus in His work today. Divided into 10 weeks, this study: Guides participants verse-by-verse through Acts 1-12 Equip readers for transformation through challenging Scripture application Teaches basic principles for personally studying the Scriptures Brings Scripture to life with historical, cultural, and theological backgrounds Provides a going deeper section for curious students Ideal for groups, this study will help readers spur one another on toward adopting the qualities and passions of the early Christian church, providing built-in accountability. The fervor of the early church isn't restricted to the first century. Unlock the power of the gospel of Jesus Christ, and join His great work today.
